With more than 15 years of experience and a comprehensive integrated marketing plan, Todd has established a strong reputation and the firm has seen steady growth over time. FIRM GOAL: Establish its position as the “go-to” firm for employment law and consumer rights

Todd Friedman represents clients throughout the country and focuses his practice primarily on employment law matters. He wanted to establish his firm as the “go-to” place for employment law and consumer rights issues. In order to accomplish this, and in turn drive more potential clients to contact the firm, he felt he needed to bolster the visibility of his legal services.

SUPER LAWYERS AND FINDLAW SOLUTION

Todd consulted with the FindLaw and Super Lawyers teams and determined that creating timely, relevant content that showcased himself as an expert was the best way to gain trust with prospective clients and stay top-of-mind with past clients. They created a unique content strategy that quickly built brand awareness for the firm. The approach included:

- Expert Content: With help from content specialists, the firm created two customized white papers: Can They Make Me Pay For That? and Is That Legal? A Worker's Guide to Spotting Employment Discrimination. Both pieces featured content Todd is particularly passionate about and led to an increase in visibility and name recognition for the firm.
- Promoted Social Ads: Targeted Facebook and Twitter advertising optimized the firm's content distribution. Paid social media posts put Todd's firm in front of an audience that was ready to read, share and engage with their content. FindLaw's experts targeted people within 10 miles of Beverly Hills, along with a set age range and education level so Todd was reaching his ideal clients.
- Multiple Touch Points: Both white papers were prominently featured on the firm's mobile-optimized website along with Todd's Super Lawyers Premium Online Attorney Profile. They were also featured in a monthly e-newsletter and parceled out into a series of blog posts so the firm's brand could receive maximum exposure.
- An Integrated Approach: In addition to content, the team ran an ad in the 2016 Southern California Super Lawyers Magazine and saw a number of high-quality leads from an aggressive, coordinated PPC campaign.

At the end of the day, this comprehensive approach greatly increased awareness for Todd's expertise and helped position him as the market's employment law and consumer rights expert. Results included:
